

Over time, it is the government's ambition that all training and development identified or funded through the Learning and Development Support Scheme will be quality assured by the Quality Assured Care Learning Service.

6. Why has the new quality assurance service been launched?

DHSC has contracted Skills for Care to develop and launch a new Quality Assured Care Learning identified in the Adult Social Care Learning and Development Support Scheme that are not quality assured.

- o In the event that you cannot find alternative sufficient evidence we would encourage your organisation to review its current practices.

13. If I am unsuccessful, can I reapply?

Yes. If you find alternative sufficient evidence you will be able to amend your application and resubmit it if the current window is still open or if you find alternative sufficient evidence amend your application and resubmit it when the next window, for which you are eligible opens.

14. I am a care provider – why is the Quality Assured Care Learning Service important to me?

The quality standards are a bespoke measure of quality learning and development for the adult social care workforce. They are designed to set a
