

Guidance for large national employers accessing the Workforce Development Fund

What is the Workforce Development Fund (WDF)?

The Workforce Development Fund (WDF) for 2024-25 is a retrospective funding stream from the Department of Health and Social Care disseminated by Skills for Care. This means that an employer must have directly incurred costs for the qualifications or apprenticeships undertaken by their staff before a claim is made

How do I comply with the ASC-WDS requirements?

For a workplace to meet the ASC-WDS requirements for the Workforce Development Fund in 2024-25, the following three things must be completed:

1. A workplace which has completed an ASC-WDS workplace record before 1 April 2024 must fully update its workplace data.
2. The workplace must fully complete individual ASC-WDS staff records for all workers with a minimum of 90% of the data completed.
3. Individual staff records completed before 1 April 2024 which are included in the 90% calculation must be both fully completed and updated.

Once the above requirements have been met, a workplace will be able to claim WDF until 31 March 2025. A workplace ASC-WDS account is expected to be an accurate reflection of its service and workforce. If your service or workforce changes significantly during the year it is expected that ASC-WDS will be updated. Failure to do so could affect your ability to claim funding.

How can I tell if I have met the ASC-WDS requirements?

When logged into your ASC-WDS account you can run a report to check whether your account(s) meets the requirements for WDF.

Can I claim WDF alongside apprenticeship funding?

You can but you need to be aware of the following information, which differs between apprenticeship levy payers and non-levy payers.

Levy paying employers including those in receipt of transferred levy funds: The apprenticeship levy can only be used to pay training delivery and end-point assessment costs. It will be possible to claim WDF alongside the apprenticeship levy, but it will not be possible to use the WDF towards training delivery or end-point assessment costs because the levy is used for that. The apprenticeship levy is a tax being applied by government so public money cannot be used to offset it. However, the WDF can be used towards the associated costs of training, such as the 20% off the job learning time requirement, wage replacement costs if required to release the before making your WDF claim, the funds that you have directly paid towards training delivery (which may be a maximum of £150 on a standard capped at £3,000) can be factored into the total cost of training. The 95% from the government (up to £2,850 in this example) can't because that would constitute double funding and that is not allowed. The total cost of training can also include wider costs which are directly incurred by the employer as a result of the learner undertaking training, such as the 20% off the job learning time requirement, wage replacement costs if required to release the learner to undertake training etc. Further information is available in our frequently asked questions.

If you need further information about funding for apprenticeships in addition to what is available via the Workforce Development Fund, you can find additional information on our website.

How do I claim funding?

It's important to note that a maximum of £2,035 per learner can be claimed per funding year. The funding year for 2024-25 is 1 April 2024 to 31 March 2025. The WDF funding contribution is a maximum of the value set out on the list of funded qualifications and apprenticeships even if incurred higher costs than this figure. If incurred lower costs than the value advertised possible to claim a lower amount of funding. Further details of how to do this are included in the how to put together a claim guidance document.

Once a member of your staff has completed some learning that is eligible for funding you should claim funding as follows.

Qualification evidence To claim funding for a qualification you must have a copy
